SayeBrook Town Center Welcomes Trader Joe's, Expanding Commercial Offerings in Myrtle Beach

Myrtle Beach, S.C., September 25, 2025 — The Jackson Companies welcomes Trader Joe's to the master-planned SayeBrook community in Myrtle Beach, joining Town Center anchors such as Target, Marshalls, Petco, Kirkland's, and Ulta.

"We're excited to be a part of bringing Trader Joe's to the SayeBrook community and the greater Myrtle Beach area," said President and Chief Executive Officer of The Jackson Companies, Dennis Wade. "It's a perfect addition to what has become a vibrant community."

"SayeBrook has long been a destination for shopping, dining, and wellness. Welcoming Trader Joe's builds on that foundation, and future additions will further enrich the sense of connection and lifestyle that define SayeBrook," said Derek Harris, Vice President of Development for The Jackson Companies.

About SayeBrook

SayeBrook is a 730-acre master-planned community in Myrtle Beach with Lowcountry-inspired homes, apartment homes, and resort-style amenities. Minutes from the shore, the airport, schools, and healthcare, SayeBrook also offers a vibrant Town Center with a mix of shopping, dining, and everyday services, which make the community a destination all its own.
